Dear Mr President,

I am happy to congratulate you on your election as President of the Hellenic Football Federation.

Greece is a country passionate about football and the HFF joined UEFA in its founding year, 1954. It is a country that has a great history and presence in football including elite clubs that are regular contenders in the UEFA club competitions - and a crowning achievement you will remember all too well, when Greece lifted the trophy of the UEFA European Championship in 2004. Moments like that will stay with you forever.

I wish you all the very best for the presidential term ahead, Theodoros – and you already possess the important leadership skills that you will need to reunite football in Greece. As a former player and captain of the winning national team in 2004, you understand the force of football and what it brings to a culture and community.

As you know, UEFA has worked hard alongside the HFF in recent years to aid and support football in Greece during a turbulent time. The good thing to know about turbulence is that it is temporary, and you can have solid confidence in the future. I believe that football in Greece can now come together and flourish.

UEFA remains at your disposal for any assistance needed and I very much look forward to meeting you.

Yours sincerely,

U E F A
